FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

MONEY ORDER OFFICES AT HASSAN AND CHITALDROOG, RE-OPENED.

Circular No. 1550, dated 14th June 1883.

The Money Order Offices at Hassan and Chitaldroog, which were closed from 1st January last in consequence of the abolition of the District Treasuries, will be re-opened for business from 1st July, proximo, under the immediate charge of the Assistant Commissioners of the Sub-Divisions at those places.

Any person requiring a Money Order to be drawn at the above places will pay the amount with commission into the Kasba Taluk Treasury, and obtain the usual receipt which should be attached to the usual Money Order application and submitted to the Sub-Division Officer, who, if a Local Money Order be required, will issue one, or, if an Imperial Money Order, will grant the prescribed form of receipt.

Similarly Money Orders payable at Hassan or Chitaldroog will be presented at the Sub-Division Office where they will be checked and endorsed for payment at the Local Taluk Treasury.

During the occasional absence of the Sub-Division Officer on duty from Head-quarters, the Munsiff or the Amildar whoever is present will be in charge of the Money Order Office.

H. HUDSON,
Comptroller.
